RENEWING OUR RELATIONSHIPS: PARENT ENGAGEMENT IN SCHOOLS

Brent Dickson

Brent Dickson's oldest son Jacob was diagnosed with Autism at 2 1/2 years old. He is currently 23 years old. Join Brent as he shares the challenges, struggles, and joys that come with being part of a family with an Autistic child. Brent will share with you how his view of the world and others has changed as a result of this journey.

Brent is married to the amazing Krista and is the proud father of four boys. He is also the Director for the Canadian Student Leadership Association and was an Alberta Excellence in Teaching Award Finalist. He is currently teaching Leadership and P.E. and is the Department Head of Student Leadership at Centennial High School in Calgary, Alberta.

Deb McNab

Deb McNab is a passionate wife, mother, and friend. Her life overflows with Biblical wisdom and practical insights gained over a lifetime of love, ministry, and community investment. She currently serves as a Family Facilitator with Bridges for Children in the Battlefords. Bridges for children is a program for children under the age of 12 who are having contact with the RCMP. Deb believes... "If we all give who we are, there is no limit to the magnitude of 'us'!!" We are better together!!

Cpl. Cory Patterson

Cpl. Cory Patterson works in Saskatchewan's Integrated Child Exploitation (ICE) Unit. He specializes in child safety, the dangers of social media and internet sites, the exploitation of children within our province and within Canada, and most importantly, in what parents and community members need to know, especially with regards to the possible dangers to children that accompany technology.
